Calvary Baptist Hosts Delegates

A delegation of 40 Australian Baptists who are returning from the Tenth Baptist World Congress held at Rio de Janeiro June 26 to July 3, are in the Los Angeles area this week. The Calvary Baptist Church, 2818 Manhattan Beach Blvd., will be host to a number of these delegates next Sunday evening. The Calvary Baptist Adult Fellowship will be sponsoring a buffet supper in the honor of the church at 5:30 p.m. Delegates will speak at the regular 6:30 p.m. meeting of the Adult Group, and Rev. N. W. Adcock, minister of the Seaton Park Baptist church, South Australia, will deliver the message at the 7:30 p.m. evening service. Rev. Adcock was director of visitation and evangelism for the recent Adelaide Billy Graham Crusade. He is secretary of the States' Overseas Mission department. The Australian party is made up of Baptists from every state in the Australian Commonwealth and one from the pioneer Baptist work in New Guinea. The Baptist World Congress at Rio de Janeiro reported 20,000 delegates in attendance representing the 24,000,000 Baptists of the world from 106 countries. The Calvary Baptist Vacation Bible school began last Monday with an opening day attendance of 90 and with 26 teachers and helpers. The theme is "The Child and the Church." Co-superintendents of the school are Mrs. Bill McCurdy and Mrs. Harold Churchill. Mrs. Ralph Boge is
